

FOREST ANIMALS

DEER

Deer can run very fast to escape predators.

FOREST ANIMALS

Fox

Foxes are clever and adapt to many environments.

FOREST ANIMALS

Bear

Bears can hibernate for months without eating.

FOREST ANIMALS

Owl

Owls can rotate their heads almost 270 degrees.

FOREST ANIMALS

Wolf

Wolves hunt in packs using teamwork.

FOREST ANIMALS

Raccoon

Raccoons are nocturnal and have dexterous paws.

FOREST ANIMALS

Hedgehog

Hedgehogs roll into a ball for protection.

FOREST ANIMALS

Squirrel

Squirrels can remember where they hide food.

FOREST ANIMALS

Woodpecker

Woodpeckers peck trees to find insects and make nests.

FOREST ANIMALS

Moose

Moose are the largest members of the deer family.

FOREST ANIMALS

Badger

Badgers dig extensive burrows and are nocturnal.

FOREST ANIMALS

Chipmunk

Chipmunks store food in their cheek pouches.

FOREST ANIMALS

Skunk

Skunks spray to defend themselves.

FOREST ANIMALS

BAT

Forest bats use echolocation to hunt at night.

FOREST ANIMALS

Beaver

Beavers build dams and lodges to survive.

FOREST ANIMALS

Lynx

Lynx have tufted ears and are stealthy hunters.

FOREST ANIMALS

Hawk

Hawks have excellent eyesight to hunt.

FOREST ANIMALS

Porcupine

Porcupines have sharp quills for defense.

FOREST ANIMALS

Marten

Martens are agile forest carnivores.

FOREST ANIMALS

Coyote

Coyotes are adaptable and can live near humans.