

BUGS

Butterfly

Butterflies taste with their feet.

BUGS

Bee

Bees communicate using dances.

BUGS

Ant

Ants can lift objects many times their own weight.

BUGS

Ladybug

Ladybugs eat pests like aphids.

BUGS

Dragonfly

Dragonflies can fly backward.

BUGS

Grasshopper

Grasshoppers can jump 20 times their body length.

BUGS

Praying Mantis

Praying mantises are skilled hunters.

BUGS

Cockroach

Cockroaches can survive without food for weeks.

BUGS

Firefly

Fireflies produce light to attract mates.

BUGS

Cicada

Cicadas make loud noises using membranes on their abdomen.

BUGS

Cricket

Crickets chirp to attract mates.

BUGS

Termite

Termites can destroy wood structures in homes.

BUGS

Wasp

Wasps are predators and can sting repeatedly.

BUGS

Beetle

Beetles are the largest group of insects on Earth.

BUGS

Spider

Spiders spin silk to make webs.

BUGS

Mosquito

Mosquitoes feed on blood for reproduction.

BUGS

Fly

Flies taste with their feet.

BUGS

Moth

Moths are nocturnal relatives of butterflies.

BUGS

Grasshopper Nymph

Young grasshoppers molt several times to grow.

BUGS

Ladybird Larva

Ladybird larvae eat many pests before becoming adults.